

Vétérinaires Sans Frontières Suisse
De la santé animale à la santé publique

Vétérinaires Sans Frontières Suisse (VSF-Suisse) is a humanitarian, politically and religiously neutral organization with headquarters in Bern, Switzerland. VSF-Suisse implements both development and emergency relief programmes related to the livestock sector, where livestock is a factor in the improvement of food security and/or livelihood.

For its Post Tsunami Rehabilitation and Reconstruction Project in Somalia, VSF-Suisse is looking for a.

Project Manager

Duty station:

Puntland, Somalia,
with regular missions to VSF-Suisse regional office in Nairobi, Kenya

Profile:

- Bachelor's or Master's Degree in Civil Engineering or equivalent.
- Proven experience in project planning, management and implementation (ideally in the Horn of Africa).
- Excellent interpersonal and negotiation skills; ability to lead a team.
- Flexibility and willingness to work independently.
- Fluency in written and spoken English.

Tasks:

The outputs of the project are related to the construction and rehabilitation of small towns infrastructures in the fisheries, livestock and water sector on the coast of Puntland.

Your duties will include but not be limited to:

- Coordination of activities with local government departments, International NGOs and UN Agencies on the ground.
- Coordination and implementation of project activities with the assistance of specialists.
- Management of the staff and financial resources of the project.
- Reporting

Starting date:

Immediate or as soon as possible

Duration of contract:

One year

Applications and Deadline:

Deadline for applications 20 April 2006

CV and cover letter should be sent to:

Vétérinaires Sans Frontières Suisse
The Director
Optingenstrasse 14 , Postfach 479, 3000 Bern 25

or

by email at info@vsf-suisse.ch with "Application PTRRP Project Manager" in the subject line.